

Reformation Historical Interview Rules-They begin Friday-Oct. 21

- 33.33% of Total Project Grade-Rubric is separate
- Must conduct research in order to meet requirements below
- Can use props-Crowns, capes, scepters, etc.
- Follow Mr. Cowles advice

1. You must be familiar with your person's

- Country of Origin
- Complete Role in the Reformation
- 5 personal characteristics
- What they think their legacy will be? What their legacy actually is?
- How they died

2. Questions that you will ask historical figure (will interview 1 additional figure)

- What do you feel what was your most important role during the Reformation Era?
- What would you do differently if you could go back in time?
- Did you know that as a result of your actions.....?-(this info comes from your Mind Map Legacies)
- What other Reformation Person would you like to meet and why?

This is another form of an informal assessment because you must know all of the legacies.

Now that you know whom you are interviewing-come up with two specific questions for your person!
